KENNY SUMM

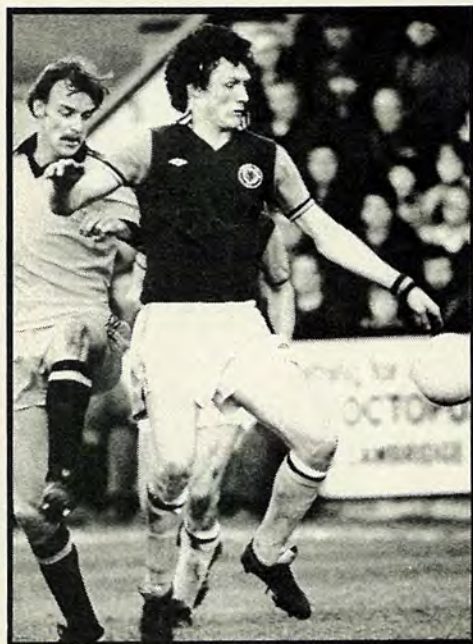

Allan Evans

ASTON VILLA (below)

MATCH VIEW: The deadliest defender around. Six-footer Allan finished up as Villa's second top scorer in the First Division last season and is on the goal trail again this term.

He has already scored five goals for the title hopefuls. But tough-tackling Allan is not only a 'king of the air' — he's deadly with both feet.

He turned sweetly in the box to hit a great goal with his left foot against Birmingham earlier in the season . . . one that was featured in our 'Golden Goal' series.

Dave Watson

SOUTHAMPTON (above)

MATCH VIEW: England centre-half Dave has scored over 50 League goals in a long and successful career that has spanned five English clubs.

Dave is a valuable England weapon when he comes up for corners to cause havoc in opposing penalty areas.

At 33, Dave is nearing the end of his career, but with his fellow central defender at The Dell, Chris Nicholl, they continue to form an effective and popular partnership for the Saints.

MATCH WEEKLY

Phil Neal

LIVERPOOL (above)

MATCH VIEW: As well as being Liverpool's penalty king England full-back Phil Neal is also very dangerous on the break and has scored some spectacular goals for the League champions, none better than one against Aberdeen in the European Cup.

In over 200 games, Phil has scored more than 25 goals for Liverpool.

He is rated by his England colleague Peter Shilton as one of the most dangerous attacking defenders in the game today.

DEFEN

Nikki Jovanovic

MAN UTD (above)

MATCH VIEW: The fearsome sight of the 6ft 3ins tall Yugoslav international moving upfield for corners and free-kicks strikes terror into the hearts of defenders and often means goals for Manchester United.

For Nikki loves to take full advantage of his size to score and create chances.

He has deputised well for Gordon McQueen, who has been sidelined through injury.

Willie Young

MATCH VIEW: One of the most uncompromising defenders in the game — but also one of the most dangerous in attack.

Big red-headed Willie (pictured right, in action against Forest's Martin O'Neill) is unmistakable as he charges upfield.

One of the masters of the set-piece, Willie has scored many an important goal for the Gunners.

DEFENDERS...

Forest and England star Peter Shilton names his top six TOP stopper Peter Shilton doesn't know where the next shot is coming from.

The Nottingham Forest and England star told MATCH: "It's a fact that teams are getting their goal quota from all sorts of players nowadays and more defenders are getting in on the act.

"There are two kinds of 'deadly defender' — the big centre halves who come up for set-pieces and the fast attacking full-back," said Peter.

"In the first category I rate Arsenal's Willie Young, Gordon McQueen (Manchester Utd), and Match brings you a fascinating focus on the game's most dangerous attacking defenders and England keeper Peter Shilton gives his views.

my England team-mate Dave Watson as some of the most dangerous.

"Not only do they score goals but they also set them up for their team-mates," he added.

"Phil Neal (Liverpool) and my Forest mate Viv Anderson fall into the second category — they both like to come forward — and are very dangerous.

"I was also impressed by West Brom's Bryan Robson when he played as sweeper in England's last game against Switzerland. He broke from defence very quickly and caused the Swiss problems.

"Another attacking defender I rate highly is Ipswich Town's Kevin Beattie."

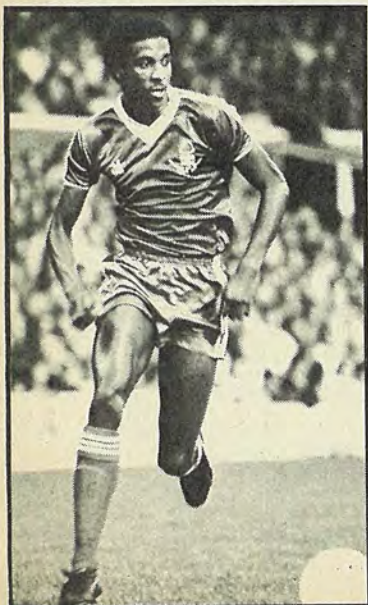

Viv Anderson

MATCH VIEW: Known as 'Spider' to his team-mates Nottingham Forest's attacking defender has opponents in a tangle as he races forward to set up another attack.

As well as creating scoring chances, Viv can also finish them off and hit the net four times last season.

But Forest have a two pronged attack on the flanks because left back Frank Gray can also cause problems with his accurate shooting.

Arsenal's last laugh

THE HOWLS of laughter must have echoed around the marble halls of Highbury when the Arsenal players heard the draw for the FA Cup fourth round.

Beaten 2-0 by Everton in the third round after reaching the last three finals this year's draw was of no more than academic interest until they heard who their conquerors had drawn . . .

Liverpool at home.

"That's the one everybody wanted to avoid," said Arsenal's Kenny Sansom, "but I don't reckon Liverpool are certainties by any means."

"Everton will be lifted after beating us and Liverpool haven't been at their best recently," added Kenny, whose 85th minute own goal put paid to the Gunners' cup hopes.

As well as the attraction of an exciting Merseyside derby at Goodison Park the draw has thrown up other intriguing ties.

Manchester City boss John Bond entertains his old team-mates at Carrow Road when Norwich City visit Maine Road.

Ipswich Town, chasing the double, travel to struggling Second Division Shrewsbury, while Southampton could become the Cup's dark horses if they beat Bristol Rovers at The Dell.

The full draw for the fourth round is:

Barnsley v Enfield
Bury or Fulham v Charlton
Everton v Liverpool
Coventry v Birmingham
Leicester v Exeter
Manchester City v Norwich
Carlisle v Derby
Middlesbrough v West Brom
Newcastle v Luton
Notts Co v Peterborough
Nottm Forest v Manchester U
Spurs v Hull
Shrewsbury v Ipswich
Southampton v Bristol Rovers
Watford v Wolves
West Ham or Wrexham v Wimbledon

Exeter City players led by League top scorer Tony Kellow (fourth left) show their disappointment after hearing the Third Division side have been drawn away to Leicester City in the Fourth Round of the FA Cup.

£56m cash splash!

WHAT have Malcolm Poskett and Mick Harford in common.

Answer . . . they share the distinction of starting and finishing the most expensive transfer season on record.

When Watford manager Graham Taylor completed the sale of Poskett from Brighton on January 3, 1980, I'm sure he didn't realise that the £110,000 he paid would be the first instalment of a bonanza year in the transfer market.

It ended on December 23 with Newcastle boss Arthur Cox splashing out £150,000 on Lincoln goal grabber Mick Harford to clock up an incredible fifty-six-million three-hundred-and-sixty-three-thousand five-hundred-pounds, yes that's £56,363,500 on the 1980 cash till.

Four men shared the year's top buy tag all on £1,250,000 . . . Ian Wallace (Coventry to Forest), Clive Allen (QPR to Arsenal), Kevin Reeves (Norwich to Man City) (pictured left) and Garry Birtles (Forest to Man U) with August the most popular buying month when nearly £7 million was spent.

January — £1,663,000; February £2,862,500; March — £3,538,000; April — £700,000; May — £2,580,000; June — £2,697,000; July — £3,935,000; August — £6,790,000; September — £550,000; October — £3,683,000; November — £1,170,000; December — £1,430,000.

For the record here are the final sales of 1980, continued from our December 27 issue . . .

12	Alan Curtis	Leeds	Swansea	£175,000
13	Terry Austin	Mansfield	Huddersfield	£125,000

Golden own goal

IT'S not easy to see the funny side when you have just headed a spectacular goal into your own net particularly in front of millions of TV viewers.

But Bolton's Mick Walsh (left) refused to sulk about the effort which helped to send his team reeling to 2-1 defeat at West Ham and is being tipped as the 'Own Goal of the Season'.

"Definitely the best I've scored," he winked, "a right little cracker. I even waited for it on the telly and remember telling my old lady . . . here it comes, what a smasher!"

For the record here's the goal again in Mick's own words: "Corner came over, Paul Jones got a touch, I thought Bonds and Martin were coming to meet it behind me, so I launched myself trying to nod it wide. Trouble was, I headed it too well and it flew off into the net."

Poster winners

WE'VE had a terrific response from all you budding artists following our Christmas painting competition.

And the standard of entries were so high that it took us quite a time to sort out the winners of the 18 giant England team posters.

Class two (10-13 years): Alun Herbert, Tredegar, Gwent; Stuart Smith, Southend-on-Sea, Essex; John Tobin, Abbots Langley, Herts; Anton Poll, Anstey, Leics; Phillip Galley, Wyberton, Lincs; and Duncan Burns, Stratford-on-Avon, Warks.

ON LAST week's front page we inadvertently referred to an article inside on Manchester United's Jimmy Nicholl. The item did not appear in that issue and for that we apologise.

HI THERE, I'm Justin Fashanu.

There's been a lot of speculation surrounding my future this season but I'm happy to reveal that I've finally made my big signing . . . for Match Weekly.

And in the coming weeks I will be allowing you into my life and giving you an insight to my football world.

But first let me take you back to the beginning . . .

I was born 19-years ago at Hackney Hospital, London, and when I was very young my parents split up leaving myself and younger brother John in a Dr Barnado's home.

But we were very lucky because John and I were fostered by two marvellous people. We moved to live in the Norwich area when I was four years old.

My football career started at Attleborough Primary School when I used my size — I was always bigger than my class-mates — to score goals in the playground.

I moved to the secondary school and I began to take the sport more seriously. When I was 12 I found myself in the school's under 14 team.

Scoring goals has never been a problem for me and I was soon playing for Norfolk Schoolboys.

It was about this time — when I was 14 — that I took up boxing.

A friend took me to the gym one day to watch him. As I'm no good as a spectator I just couldn't wait to jump in the ring and have a go.

So reckoning myself as Norwich's answer to Muhammad Ali I took a real liking to the sport and enjoyed a

My way...by

I can't forget Liverpool!

LEAGUE champions Liverpool are at Norwich on Saturday and that brings back instant memories of last season's clash at Carrow Road — a match I'll never forget.

We were beaten 5-3, but I scored the best goal of my career so far. I was delighted that it went on to be voted BBC Television's 'Goal of the Season'.

Many people have said that it fair amount of success at it.

I reached the Amateur Boxing Association's heavyweight finals twice and scored 19 wins, including 12 knock-out's, for my club, Watton.

I was getting on well in the sport and fancied the idea of becoming a professional boxer.

But because I couldn't become a professional until I was 17 I had a year to kill when I left school.

I had had trials at Peterborough and Norwich so when the Canaries offered me terms I decided to give it a go.

I never expected to make the grade and thought that the bubble would burst and the club would reject me.

But to my amazement the goals kept going in and by the time I was 17 I had made my debut in the First Division.

Peterborough United must have felt a little sick at the time because I was all set to sign for them until Norwich came in.

was a goal in a lifetime and only happens to a player once.

But I believe that if you keep taking pot-shots from far out the law of averages says that some of them must go in.

The funny thing about the goal was that at the time I didn't think about scoring — I just tried to get my shot in before the defenders closed me down.

Saturday's game is very important because Liverpool, as usual, are chasing the title.

We have been putting it together at Carrow Road — but letting ourselves down away from home.

THAT TRANSFER TALK

I HAVEN'T let all the transfer talk affect my form this season.

But I do know that if I keep scoring goals my sale price will keep going up!

It's no secret that I want to play for a successful big name club but until that happens all I want is to score goals for Norwich City.

Left: Even the mighty Ray Clemence couldn't keep out my effort in last season's fixture at Carrow Road. The England keeper is beaten by the shot which won me BBC's 'Goal of the Season' award.

It is very difficult for me to comment on so-called offers that have been reported in the newspapers — I can't say anything until a club offers money for me. But I'd like to thank the Norfolk people for the way they have supported me.

They realise that I am only trying to look after myself and I have heard nothing but kind words from the supporters at Carrow Road.

It would have been easy for me to have accepted a new contract and then still insisted that I wanted to get away — and the fans would have rightly given me some stick.

But I haven't done that and they have accepted that I am ambitious and want to join a club with potential.

NEXT WEEK

I'll be telling you about two special moments in my life — my debut and how Kevin Bond helped me score my first goal for Norwich City.

Look forward to seeing you next week — bye for now!

● Bit of a fluke. Had my back to goal and took a swing at low cross with left foot. Squeezed past Jim Platt. Lost 3-1.
Aug 30	Everton (h)	12
● One of the best. Cross from Paul Mariner on right... hit it on volley from the edge of box and it flew in. Won 4-0.
Sept 13	C. Palace (a)	27

Sept 20	Coventry (h)	57, 63
●● First was a scrambled effort... I got knocked down in box and as I was getting up the ball came to me and I swung at it. Second was rather special. Cross from Arnold Muhren, flicked on by Brazil and I chested it down and whacked it in with my left foot. Won 2-0, but also got booked!
Oct 4	Leeds (h)	70
● Most satisfying because Leeds had defended throughout. Another Muhren cross from the left and I came running from

Dec 20 Birmingham (a) 52

● Muhren crossed from the left and I stole behind their defence to head in. Won 3-1.

Dec 26 Norwich (h) 49

● One of the best. Hit a bouncing ball on the edge of the box. It bent as it flew into top corner. Won 2-0.

Dec 27 Arsenal (a) 76

WARK'S GOAL DASH!

HOW IPSWICH STAR
HAS SET THE PACE

IN THIS exclusive MATCH WEEKLY dossier Ipswich Town's John Wark has been revealing the facts (left) behind his incredible goal tally and the secrets of his success. Note: LC — League Cup; E — UEFA Cup. The rest are League Matches. Spots denote goals per game.

by Anthony Hawkswell

FOR a midfield player Ipswich Town's John Wark is a handy striker to have around.

Now the Scottish international has become the Ipswich 'goal machine' and at the end of the year had scored 23 goals.

"It's been an unbelievable season for me so far — I just hope it carries on," John told MATCH.

He has helped Town's push for the League Championship with 12 goals and given their UEFA Cup hopes a boost with nine from their three home ties at Portman Road.

"I'm timing my runs into the box better this season and this has produced a few more goals," he added.

"I have played with the same players for a couple of seasons now so I know what they are going to do and can time my runs exactly.

"The forwards Paul Mariner and Alan Brazil have been taking the big centre-halves out of the way and this has helped me steal in unnoticed.

"Scoring so many goals early on has boosted my confidence and encouraged me to have a go from far out.

"But really I don't mind who scores the goals as long as Ipswich keep winning games and stay on course for the title," added John.

"Funnily enough the two penalties at Forest and Arsenal were the most valuable goals I have scored so far. The Forest one gave us both points while the goal at Highbury gave Ipswich the draw we deserved."

John, who scored 15 goals last season, added: "But I'm not setting myself any targets this time, although I shall be disappointed if I don't score a few more," he added.

Wark-over! He hooks in his hat-trick goal against Aris Salonika.

Great Scot: John Wark... man of many parts: midfield terrier, penalty king, and goal-grabber extraordinary.

ADVICE TO YOUNGSTERS: Be dedicated, train hard, listen to advice.

MY WORST MOMENT

THE WORST moment of my career — that's how I rate my own goal which knocked Arsenal out of the FA Cup at Goodison Park.

I don't think I've ever felt so low in all my life as I did when I saw the ball fly into the net and give Everton the lead in the 85th minute. I wouldn't have felt so bad if it had happened in the first half — at least we would have had some chance of pulling it back.

What was worse was that it was my first FA Cup appearance for The Gunners and before I joined them they had done so well in the competition. We were going for our fourth successive Wembley appearance. The lads were really great after the match and told me not to worry about it — but I don't think I will ever forget the goal.

A cross came in from Joe McBride and I knew that Mick Lyons was behind me.

Corner

I tried to push the ball for a corner with my left foot but it just flew into the net.

Many people — Arsenal coach Don Howe included — said I should have cleared it with my right foot but I am naturally left footed.

Although it's no consolation I genuinely believe I'd attempt the same sort of clearance again in the circumstances.

I really wanted to have a successful Cup run this year. I've never had a good spell in the FA Cup.

But we've now got to knuckle down and look to the League and at least a place in Europe for next season.

A score to settle with Spurs

SATURDAY sees the Gunners up against our North London rivals Spurs for the third time this season.

And although we beat them in the First Division we have a score to settle because they knocked us out of the League Cup when they won 1-0 at White Hart Lane.

We have a tremendous record against them in the League — we haven't been beaten since 1976 — and we shall be out to keep up our good record.

Ossie Ardiles will have returned from the World Cup winners tournament in Uruguay and that won't make our task any easier.

Spurs have been playing with their captain Steve Perryman in a defensive role recently — and that will suit me fine.

It think Steve is much more effective when he plays in midfield — he adds aggression to the skills of Ardiles and Hoddle.

Up front close season signings Garth Crooks and Steve Steve Perryman — I reckon he's much more effective in the Spurs midfield.

Archibald have got it together well and are scoring goals.

Scoring has never really been much of a problem for them — but they do concede a few and we shall be hoping to capitalise on that.

Relegation would do Palace good!

SAYS ARSENAL'S KENNY SANSOM

IT SADDENS me to say it, but I can't see my old team, Crystal Palace, pulling themselves out of trouble this season.

With the extraordinary happenings at Selhurst Park recently I don't think the players have the confidence to play themselves out of the relegation zone.

It doesn't look at all good for my old mates — nothing is going right for them at the moment.

Looking to the future it could be better for them to go down to the Second Division — it would give them the breathing space to rebuild.

It doesn't do a team's confidence any good at all to be battling against relegation year in and year out.

A season in the Second Division didn't do Manchester United or Spurs any harm — they are much stronger now for the experience.

Some of the comings and goings at Palace have amazed me.

I think Queens Park Rangers manager Terry Venables must have picked up the bargain of the season when he bought Terry Fenwick for just £100,000. I rate him as one hell of a player.

Terry took my place at left back when I moved to Arsenal but he has also played in front of me in midfield and I was very impressed by his displays.

I still feel a great deal for Palace and I can only wish them happier times.

PETAR

(Below) Petar is the true artist . . . both on and off the field. Here he poses alongside one of the many marvellous paintings he has created in his spare time. This work of 'fantasy' hangs in the lounge of his Putney home. Petar studied art for 18 months before he became a full time footballer and has even held his own one man exhibition in London. He is soon to hold another and it will certainly be worth a visit.

(Above) Petar spends a quiet moment with his youngest daughter Barbara (4), surrounded by her collection of cuddly toys. He has one other daughter — seven-year-old Mirella.

(Right) The woman behind the man. Petar's stunning Yugoslavian wife Biba has been able to help him with his English but she leaves the football side to her husband — preferring to stay home most match days.

(Far right) Just for luck. This tiny piece of wood is Petar's good luck charm and travels with him in his jacket pocket on every match day. He explained: "It was given to me by my mother. It's a type of wood found in a certain mountainous region of Yugoslavia — no-where else in Europe — and it's believed to bring luck."

GARY BAILEY

GOAL! The best I've ever seen

The Man Utd goalkeeper writes just for you

WHITE Hart Lane is one of my favourite away grounds and it was there that I witnessed the best goal I've ever seen . . . at first hand.

The goal I'm talking about is Glenn Hoddle's volley for Spurs against United in the League Cup second round last season.

It came right out of the blue and I don't mind admitting it caught me a bit flat-footed.

We were 1-0 down and Spurs were awarded a free kick which was taken by Terry Yorath.

He pushed the ball forward to Glenn who played a one-two with Ossie Ardiles, ran on into the box, took off and hit the ball — at what must have been above waist height — full on the volley.

It was one of those shots that either go in or knock someone out in the stands!

I managed to stick out an arm but it didn't help much and the ball just whistled past me and into the top right hand corner of the net.

Glenn said at the time that he rated it the best goal he had ever scored and his manager Keith Burkinshaw went one better by saying it was the best he had ever seen.

It was all so unexpected and that's what made it so special . . . just like Terry McDermott's volley for Liverpool against Spurs, also at White Hart Lane, in the FA Cup last season.

But then, Glenn has the ability to hit a ball hard and accurate even when he's not in an ideal striking position and that is true skill.

● In my next column I'll tell you about the save I regard as the best I've ever made . . . and why I may never make another save like it.

Ready for the 'Roker roar'

SATURDAY's League programme sees us up against Sunderland and I'm really looking forward to my first game at Roker Park . . . like Old Trafford, a ground that's always had a great reputation for atmosphere.

After the noise generated inside Old T. some grounds we visit seem really quiet.

You can almost hear supporters unwrapping their sweet papers!

But that certainly won't be the case on Saturday and that suits me just fine. I love the kind of occasion that's sure to be generated for our visit to the North East.

It's Sunderland's first season back in Division One and in all fairness they are probably finding life a bit tough, but they will provide very, very difficult opposition on their own ground.

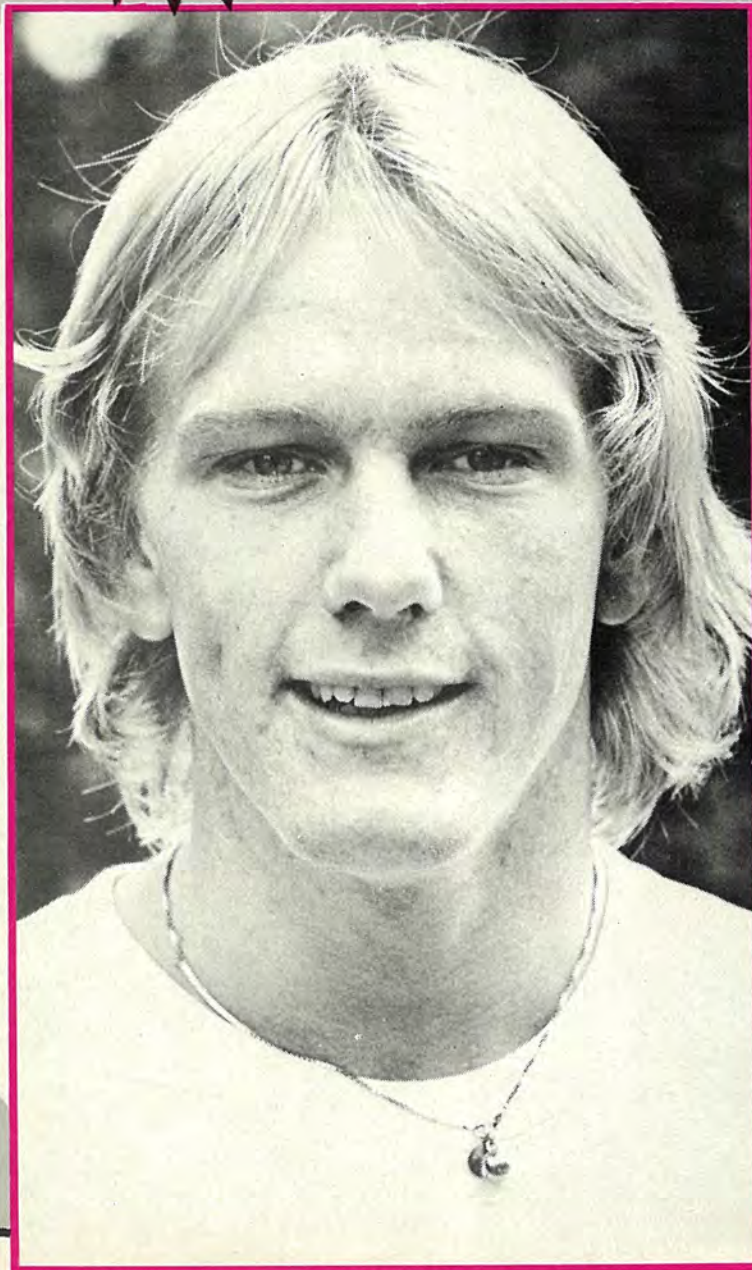

When we played them at home earlier in the season we drew 1-1.

They were forced to defend most of the game, but handled the job well and finally broke away to equalise.

Gary Bailey

Sunderland's Stan Cummins — one man I'll be hoping to keep out at Roker Park on Saturday.

The KENNY DALGLISH

PART 2

KENNY WAS OVERLOOKED FOR THE OPENING SCOTTISH SCHOOLBOY INTERNATIONAL AGAINST WALES. BUT HIS TEAM MANAGER BOB SHERRY PITCHED HIM INTO A MATCH AGAINST THE SCOTTISH TRIALISTS IN A BID TO CATCH THE SELECTORS' EYES FOR THE NEXT GAME IN NORTHERN IRELAND. THEY WERE IMPRESSED & HE WAS NAMED FOR HIS FIRST CAP...

11 YEARS LATER IN A LIVERPOOL HOTEL KENNY RECALLED THE MATCH WITH EVERTON'S NEW SIGNING DAVE THOMAS WHO PLAYED FOR ENGLAND THAT DAY...

A 1-1 DRAW WAS IT, DAVE?

KENNY FLEW TO LONDON & WAS MET BY WEST HAM MANAGER RON GREENWOOD WHO TOOK HIM HOME TO TEA.

I'M SURE YOU ENJOY YOUR KENNY

Talent is tops

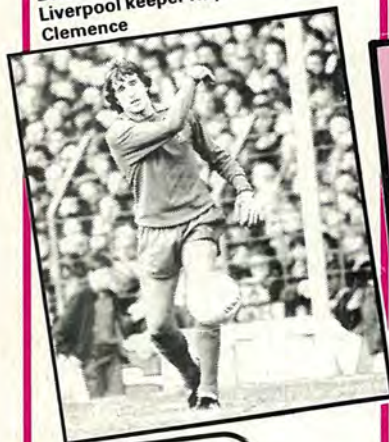

THE 'bad boys' of football seem to get all the publicity, but people forget we have many talented players who are not only a delight to watch, but also a credit to their profession.

I am talking about the likes of Trevor Brooking and Alan Devonshire (West Ham), Frank Stapleton (Arsenal) and Ray Clemence (Liverpool).

They are a fine example to young fans and should get more recognition.

James Diamond (16), Hebburn, Tyne and Wear

Below: Praise for Liverpool keeper Ray Clemence

Wide-open Wembley

I THINK it's unfair that international teams play at Wembley.

The pitch is very tiring for players who are not used to the wide open spaces and this gives the English an unfair advantage over their opponents.

Vito Ravo, London W2

● I HAVEN'T seen England set the World alight at Wembley recently. You get the red card for talking such drivel.

Shaw has class

I AM not an Aston Villa supporter, but I do admire their young striker Gary Shaw.

I believe Ron Greenwood should give him a chance on the international stage by selecting him to play for England in their forthcoming friendly against Spain.

People will say that he lacks experience and is not ready for full England duty — but I believe he has the class to beat the best.

We are far too cautious with our young stars. Bernd Schuster (W. Germany) and Diego Maradona (Argentina) have not suffered from early full international appearances.

Peter Braund (15), Chelmsford.

TERRACE TALK

Foster for me

BRIGHTON's young defender Steve Foster should be given a chance to prove himself in the England centre-half role.

He is good in the air, and on the ground and is my choice to succeed Dave. Robert Heath, Goddards Green, Hassocks, Sussex.

Don't forget Osman

MATCH missed out two of the clear-cut contenders when they named their centre-half replacements for Dave Watson.

I'm talking about Russell Osman (Ipswich) and Shaun Elliott (Sunderland).

Neil Westray (15), Tyne and Wear

● TERRY BUTCHER — popular choice

Your views on England's next centre-half

WHO will replace Dave Watson of Southampton as the England centre-half?

Following 'Match Weekly's' feature on the likely contenders in our December 13 issue, here's a selection of your views on the matter.

Dave is still the best

WATSON's not finished yet!

It annoys me to see people writing him off because he had a poor game for England in Rumania — his first in 58.

I watch the Saints home games and for me Dave is still the best defender around and outclasses his so-called rivals.

Oliver Bunce (13), Christchurch.

Backing Butcher

TERRY BUTCHER of Ipswich is the next man for the England number five shirt.

This season he has kept the top strikers in the First Division quiet whenever they have faced him and he deserves his chance.

He is a good tackler and, unlike Dave Watson, he never gets caught out by fast running forwards.

Paul Webb, Thorneywood, Notts.

Give Terry the job

BUTCHER's the boy! Terry Butcher of Ipswich should be given Dave Watson's England job.

He has so much skill and is effective both on the ground and in the air. He will do a good job.

Robert Highfield, West Bromwich.

OUTRAGED!

I'M Anthony Hawkswell and I'm in charge of the Outraged column.

I'll stand no nonsense... any back chat and you could get sent off!

I'll be giving the red card to what I judge to be the letter of the week. And yellow cards to any others published.

And to make it more interesting I'll pay £5 for the red card and £2 for each yellow card.

But be warned. I'm the ref and my decisions stand! Send your letters to Outraged, Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

Sneaky Spaniards

I AM outraged at the sneaky way Valencia win trophies.

They only just managed to beat Arsenal on penalties in the final of the European Cup-Winners Cup, last season and had to rely on the 'away goals' rule to beat Nottingham Forest in the Super Cup recently.

Come on Valencia — win your next trophy outright! Paul Healy (10), Southgate, London.

● YOU'RE obviously a Forest fan who can't take defeat like a man. Forest should have stuffed the Spaniards in Nottingham and Arsenal had their chances in Brussels. You're booked!

Beat Paul's predictions

Here are my ten predicted scorelines for Saturday. There's a space for your forecasts, one for dad and a column for the actual results.

You get two points for every score you get right and one point if you get a result right (i.e. home, away or draw) but the scoreline wrong.

Carry your points total forward each week.

STRATTON on Saturday

Villa look a Shaw thing!

Villa's Gary Shaw — out to sink Coventry for the second time.

ASTON VILLA scoring sensation Gary Shaw steps out against Midland rivals Coventry on Saturday bidding to land his own personal double over the League Cup semi-finalists.

It was a Shaw special that sank Coventry when Villa beat them 1-0 at Highfield Road earlier this season.

And five months later he remains the most likely Villa forward to hit the back of the net.

Whether or not Gary is successful in getting on the scoresheet this time around, I fancy Villa to keep up their push for the championship by taking two points.

Meanwhile IPSWICH — the other main challengers for LIVERPOOL's crown — may have to settle for a share of the spoils at Goodison Park.

Ipswich thrashed Everton 4-0 at Portman Road with goals from Alan Brazil, John Wark, Terry Butcher and current first choice England centre-forward Paul Mariner, who finds himself in competition with the man who was once rated England's best in that position — Everton's Bob Latchford.

But I don't think the Suffolk outfit — many fans' choice as favourites for the title — will find the Merseysiders such an easy touch. So much for the Midlands and North.

The match that's sure to pull in one of the biggest crowds of the day is the London derby between old rivals SPURS and ARSENAL at White Hart Lane.

It's a game that throws together two of the best striking partnerships in the First Division — Alan Sunderland and Frank Stapleton of Arsenal and Garth Crooks and Steve Archibald of Spurs.

I'm going for the Tottenham duo to avenge Spurs 2-0 defeat at Highbury earlier this season.

In the Second Division, there's another London derby game between the improving Q.P.R. and inconsistent CHELSEA.

Rangers have been playing their own version of new faces this season, but the players that manager Terry Venables has bought must go down as some of the best bargains of the season and I take them to sneak it.

LEFT: Fourteen-year-old Matthew Lancaster of Earlswood, West Midlands, drew this picture of West Ham star Alan Devonshire and wrote: "I drew Alan because he has twice been runner-up in the Matchman of the Month awards and also because of his fine displays throughout the season."

LEFT: Aston Villa and young England star Gary Shaw — through the eyes of 15-year-old Peter Willis of Ribblesdale, Lancs, who says of Gary: "He's an outstanding player with all round ability and a lot of skill in the making and scoring of goals."

BELOW: Neil Tristram of Arnold, Notts, drew this picture of Nottingham Forest star Trevor Francis and says: "Trevor should be in Star Gallery because he scored in his first League match after his ankle injury."

Now in its 3rd year — the course that offers you goalkeeping training with those who know — the professionals!

G1 GOALKEEPING SCHOOL

with HARRY GREGG, GARY BAILEY, DAI DAVIES and others.

Gary Bailey
Manchester United Goalkeeper

Goalkeepers

The neglected members of the team, whose training is often limited to a short session on team training night or a few quick hints at the end of a general soccer course.

But goalkeepers are a specialist position — and therefore need specialized coaching and training. And that's where G1 comes in.

The G1 Goalkeeping School is a unique opportunity to bring out your goalkeeping talents while training with professionals. For the past three years scores of young goalkeepers have benefited from this fantastic course which remains unique and unrivalled.

Held at the residential sports centre of UMIST in Manchester, the G1 Goalkeeping School is a 5-day course which takes you through a programme of practical training sessions. Administered by the coaches of Sobinberry Limited the course deals with crosses, diving at opponent's feet, fitness for keepers and general coaching. The Legendary HARRY GREGG — mentor to JOE CORRIGAN, Manchester City and England; JIMMY RIMMER, Aston Villa and England; DAI DAVIES, Wrexham and Wales; JOHN PHILLIPS, Brighton and Wales; and GARY BAILEY, Manchester United and England B are responsible for the coaching content whilst a top keeper will give practical demonstrations on handling the ball, preparing for penalties, free kicks, corners and much more. You'll also see films, watch top professionals training and take part in informative question and answer forums with a top goalkeeper.

The course includes full sleeping and meal arrangements, coach travel where necessary, full written assessments and advice on entering the game as a professional.

You just can't afford to miss this chance of a lifetime to bring out your full goalkeeping potential. Cut out the coupon now and send off for full information.

Please rush me full information plus a booking form. I enclose a 12p stamp to cover postage.

STAR GALLERY

Draw a star and win £2

HERE's your chance to win £2 and have some great fun at the same time.

All you have to do is send in a drawing of your favourite player together with a short letter telling us why you think he deserves a place in the Match Weekly 'Star Gallery'.

Each person who gets a picture published will receive a £2 postal order.

Send your entries to: Star Gallery, Match Weekly, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough.

If you want your drawing returned please enclose a stamp addressed envelope.

THIS GREAT action study of Manchester City's Tommy Hutchison was sent to us by Joseph Kerrigan of Coventry, who wrote: "Tommy deserves a place in Star Gallery because he has helped City up from the bottom of the First Division."

LEFT: Norwich fan Edward Pearce (11) of Tivetshall St Mary, Norwich, Norfolk, sent this picture of Steve Goble and says of the 'Canaries' striker: "He is so skilful and sleek on the wing."

LEFT: No doubting the name behind this face — it's Leicester defender Larry May. The picture was sent in by Paul Benson of Darwen, Lancs, who says of his subject: "He's guaranteed a place in the side every game and is a player to watch out for in the future."

RIGHT: Sammy McIlroy of Manchester United — drawn by Iain Walker (13) of Kircaldy, Fife, Scotland. Says Iain: "I drew Sammy because he scores exciting goals and he's a good international."

Sweet revenge

GOLDEN GOAL

Brian Greenhoff (Leeds) v Forest, Division One, Elland Road, December 13, 1980.

"I HAVE never hit anything sweeter," Brian Greenhoff recalled, when describing the goal which ended Forest's run of four Elland Road victories and completed Leeds' first hat-trick of League wins in two years.

The former England defender added: "It was my first goal for Leeds and I'm glad it counted for so much. In fact I nearly didn't play, as I had been ill all week.

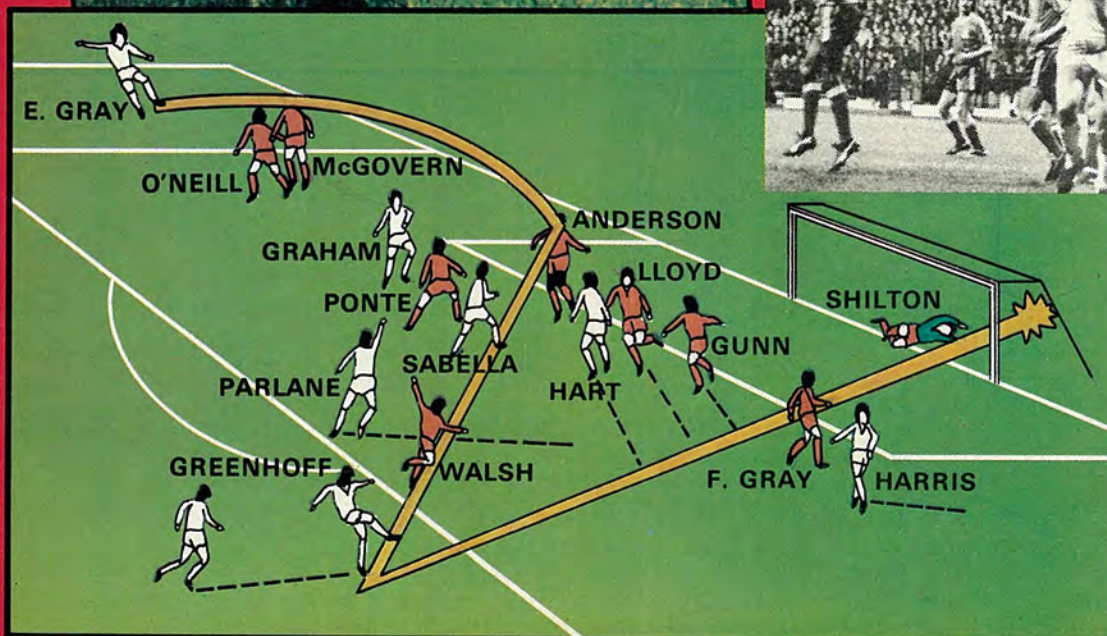

"Eddie Gray took a free-kick on the left, and Viv Anderson headed it away, but it fell just right for me and I struck it right-footed into the top corner.

"It was my first since I scored for Manchester United in the FA Cup semi-final against Liverpool 18 months ago," said Brian.

Above: Peter Shilton stretches in vain to reach Brian Greenhoff's blistering shot as Arthur Graham looks on.

It's Fun Time

"I suppose this means I won't be released to play for the Under-21's?"

"Don't just stand there — stop him."

LATE in the second half of a dreary evening game there was a floodlight failure and a voice from the crowd moaned: "That's all we need — bad play stops light."

Martin Roberts (12), Calcot, Reading, Berks.

"Give it to me straight doc. Will I get to the match on Saturday?"

GUV by Mick

A BUNCH of cannibals have just eaten a whole football team. Now they are warming up the sub!

Leslie Coates, Hartlepool, Cleveland.

GRAHAM

IAN Burnham, Stanwell Moor, Staines, Middlesex, asks: How did you feel when you stepped onto the pitch at Wembley for your England debut against Norway in September last year?

GRAHAM: To be honest, Ian, the most memorable moment for me was when the team was announced. All I wanted to do was ring up as many people as I could and tell them.

It's an old cliché but it's true to say it was the realisation of one of my dearest ambitions to play for my country.

England debut?

Any player worth his salt — no matter at what level he plays — wants to represent his country.

I reckon that if more players had the ambition to play for England our game would be much stronger all round.

If they pushed themselves it could only help their game and improve the overall standard of play in this country.

It was quite a successful debut for me because I helped set up one of the goals — so I was very pleased with my display in our 4-0 win.

What's in store?

PHIL Lawrence, Woodley, Derbyshire, asks: Will you be staying at Arsenal when your contract ends or will you go abroad?

GRAHAM: I have 18 months of my present contract to run Phil, and I shall see that out. I enjoy playing for The Gunners — they are a magic club — and if they make me a good enough offer I shall continue playing for them.

At the same time I must also look at the future very seriously. A footballer only has about 10 to 12 years to set himself up for life and obviously he must go for the best offer he can get.

Many people have criticised players for going abroad to make their fortunes, but I can't see anything wrong in it.

If a person was offered three times the salary he could earn in England to do the same job abroad then it's obvious he would consider it very seriously indeed.

Arsenal and England

That penalty?

PETER Williams, Ruislip, Middlesex, asks: How did you feel when you missed that all-important penalty in the final of the European Cup-Winners' Cup against Valencia last season?

GRAHAM: I knew this would be one of the questions, Peter!

Obviously I was very disappointed and at the time I cried my eyes out.

But in a way I'm glad it was me and none of the other lads.

The players were great and went out of their way to comfort me. The fans were also very good — I even got letters of sympathy from Spurs supporters!

Your room mates?

ELAINE Harrison, Camberwell, London, Suzanne Spencer, Jesmond, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and Doreen Andall, Shepherds Bush, London, ask: Who do you room with on England and Arsenal trips?

GRAHAM: Last season it was Liam Brady but when he moved to Juventus, Clive Allen took his place. I was expecting to room with him for a long time but Clive quickly moved on to Crystal Palace and I joined up with my old mate Kenny Sansom.

I've known Kenny since I was 14-years-old and room with him on England trips as well. And Glenn Hoddle pops in so often I sometimes think he's sharing the room, too!

It's just like playing for Arsenal when we go away on England trips so it helps relax me.

STEVEN Thomas, West Cross, Swansea, Emma Cathline, Highbury London, and Torben Betts, Stamford, Lincs, ask: What effect has the departure of Liam Brady to Juventus had on Arsenal and your own game?

GRAHAM: Liam is a world class player, so without any disrespect to the players who have taken his place we have missed his skills.

It's true to say that the fans expect more of me this season now that Liam has gone — but that doesn't worry me.

Manager Terry Neill and coach Don Howe have told me to go out and play my normal game, but it's true that the fans expect me to beat two men or produce a brilliant pass instead of doing the simple thing this season.

Is Brady missed?

But I know how I can play and I stay within my limitations. The fans sometimes get disappointed, but they should realise you can't do the spectacular all the time.

I have seen Liam a couple of times since he moved to Italy and know that he is enjoying life out there. The only thing he's really missing is his pint of lager after the match!

Brighton programme guide

BRIGHTON may be struggling at the wrong end of the First Division, but their programme is near the top of the League.

It is packed full of interesting stories and features and is good value for 25p.

We looked at the programme for the recent match against Manchester United and although the picture content was not high, there was certainly plenty to keep the fans interested before kick-off.

The only colour picture was on the front — but they more than made up for that with good, informative reading.

There was no manager's column — unusual because 'Seagulls' boss Alan Mullery doesn't often miss a chance to have his say, but were other views from the Goldstone Ground.

As well as a good news round up, the programme compilers had gone to a lot of trouble to produce a different introduction to the visitors and had produced interesting facts and figures.

Star rating guide: ★★★★★ Superb, ★★★★ Good, ★★★ Satisfactory, ★★ Poor, ★ Terrible.

C is for Villa's clever midfielder Gordon COWANS, in action against Crystal Palace.

C is for Steve COPPELL of Manchester United and England.

C IS FOR...

- Bobby and Jackie CHARLTON were the last pair of brothers to play for England. While with Manchester United, Bobby, of the CANNONBALL shot, made 106 appearances for England, scoring a record 49 goals. He also captained United to the European Cup in 1968 and holds league goals and appearance records for the club, 198 and 606.
- With Bobby, Jackie won a World Cup winners' medal in 1966, earned 28 caps at centre half and holds Leeds' league appearance record (629).
- Johan CRUYFF, brilliant Dutch midfielder and the first £1million transfer (Ajax to Barcelona) in 1973.
- CELTIC, Britain's first European Champions Cup winners in 1967 (v. Inter Milan) thanks to a Steve CHALMERS winner.
- CHELSEA, European Cup Winners Cup holders in 1971, famed for their accent on youth. Once finished a blizzard ravaged match with Blackpool in 1932 with only six players — the rest had suffered exposure!
- The CHARLES family . . . John was in 1957 the first foreign transfer (Leeds to Juventus) and in 1950 at 18 years 71 days was the youngest player for Wales. Brother Mel (Arsenal) also played for Wales as has nephew Jeremy (now Swansea).
- In conclusion, there's Brian CLOUGH, controversial . . . Ray CLEMENCE, cat-like . . . Tony CURRIE, classy skills and Laurie CUNNINGHAM, captivating speed.

Did you know...

ALLAN CLARKE was sent off in three HOME matches when playing with different clubs — with Fulham v. Arsenal in 1967, with Leicester City v. Burnley in 1968, and with Leeds v. Hajduk Split in 1973.

★ ★ ★ CHESTERFIELD were responsible for the only case in FA Cup history of a club meeting the same two opponents in the same rounds in successive seasons when they faced Doncaster (first) and Oldham (second) in 1960-61 and the same pair in the same rounds a year later.

★ ★ ★ IN the 1964-65 Division Four season CHESTER became the only club to have four players who all reached 20 Football League goals in the same season . . . Gary Talbot scored 28, Michael Metcalf (27), Elfed Morris (24) and Hugh Ryden (20).

★ ★ ★ CHARLTON scored for CHARLTON when Charlton couldn't score on Easter Saturday in 1957. The explanation was that Charlton Athletic's only goal was scored for them by an own-goal by Arsenal right-back Stan Charlton.
